Please find below and/or attached an Office communication concerning this application or proceeding.

The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/543,038	Applicant(s) SOMMER ET AL.
	Examiner John Cooney	Art Unit 1796

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Applicant's arguments filed 6-15-09 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 6-11, 17 & 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DE 198 31 285.

DE-'285 discloses preparations of prepolymer compositions comprising silane terminated polyurethane prepolymers as claimed, additives and catalysts, and (fluoro) alkane and/or alkyl ether propellants as claimed as well as methods of employing these propellants in producing foams from these prepolymers (see the abstract and column 4, as well as, the entire document). As the $P_{o/w}$ values of applicants' claims relate to properties intrinsically possessed by the propellants of the instant concern, it is held that the ranges of $\log P_{o/w}$ values of applicants' claims are inherent to the teachings of DE-'285 because it discloses the propellants of applicants' claimed invention.

Applicants' arguments have been considered. However, rejection is maintained. In that the prepolymers and propellants of applicants' claims are employed in the preparations of the cited prior art, it is held that difference is not seen to be demonstrated for the products of the claims, and inherency as indicated in the rejection above is maintained to be evident. Further, rejections under 35 USC 102 can not be overcome by showings of new or unexpected results, and the evidence discussed on reply does not serve to demonstrate how the products of the claims are different from the products of the cited prior art.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John Cooney whose telephone number is 571-272-1070. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F from 9 to 6.
